

ABSTRACT WEATHER PAINTING

"Hama-Kids Art Club" is a workshop series for children at the Yokohama Civic Art Gallery.

In this bilingual art workshop, we'll learn about the impact of climate change on weather and create art inspired by extreme weather. We'll experiment with squeegees and rollers to create a large-scale painting!

JUNE 10 1:30-3:30PM

[Venue] Yokohama Civic Art Gallery Atelier (4F)

[Target Age] Elementary school students (grade 1-3)

[Capacity] 16 children (chosen by lottery)

[Fee] 1,500yen (including material cost)

[Application deadline] May 22, 2023 (Monday)

*Participants will be chosen by lottery after the deadline

HOW TO APPLY

<To apply in English>

Please fill in the following information in an email.

>> ws-ycag@yaf.or.jp

1. Title of the workshop (Abstract Weather Painting)
2. Child's name
3. Child's grade
4. Address
5. Telephone number

*Application by email is limited to non-Japanese speakers.

- Participants will be chosen by lottery if applicants exceed capacity.
- The lottery results will be sent to each applicant via email one week after the deadline. Please email us if you do not hear from us.
- Siblings can apply together. Friends need to apply separately.
- Personal information provided for this application will be used only for this workshop and not for any other purpose.
- Depending on the spread of COVID-19, the workshop may be canceled or reduced in size.

Organizer: Yokohama Civic Art Gallery
26-1, Miyazaki-cho, Nishi-ku, Yokohama, 220-0031, Japan
<https://ycag.yafjp.org/>

YOUR INSTRUCTOR

Mioko Mochizuki is an art educator, multi-faceted artist/designer, and a graduate of Massachusetts College of Art. She founded EduArt, an art organization devoted to raising global citizens through art education.

EDU
ART